Factum Arte is pleased to announce its participation at Masterpiece London 2018 with two different spaces displaying art productions carried out at Factum Arte, in collaboration with a selected number of artists and galleries. In addition to its general stand, Factum Arte has been awarded with the 2018 Masterpiece Presents Commission which will exhibit Marina Abramovic's sculptural artworks in a cutting-edge display designed by architect Charlotte Skene Catling.

Carrying out a number of large-scale mediation and production projects, Factum Arte has gained a reputation for the uncompromising nature of its work and obsessive commitment to pushing the boundaries that usually separate technology and craft skills. For this Masterpiece edition, Factum Arte's booth (A20) is bringing together works from artists such as Marina Abramovic, Paula Crown, Shezad Dawood, Boris Savelev, Hrair Sarkissian, Grayson Perry, El Anatsui, Mat Chivers, Ahmed Mater, Joana Hadjithomas & Khalil Joriege, Rachid Koraïchi, Rob & Nick Carter, Bernd Nicolaisen and Henry Hudson.

Adam Lowe, Founder of Factum Arte, will give a talk titled "Making Articulate Objects: Digital Mediation & Transformation", on 28 June at Masterpiece (14:00, Lecture Theatre).
